

Alec C. Sherod

"My previous experience as an accountant and general counsel allows me to better understand my client's business and their unique concerns and issues. I enjoy providing clients with practical and relevant approaches that are based on opportunity and aren't bogged down by focusing on what can't be done."

Alec Sherod has extensive experience successfully representing both public and privately held companies across many industries. He primarily practices in the following areas:

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Corporate finance
- Private equity and venture capital finance
- Commercial contracts
- Corporate strategy and governance
- Securities regulations
- Strategic corporate and business counseling
- Shareholder issues

In his practice, Alec assists buyers, sellers and financial advisors in a wide variety of domestic and international M&A transactions. He also represents clients in financing transactions, including advising issuers and investors in securities law compliance, handling acquisition financing for lenders, borrowers and investors and representing clients in private placements of equity and debt.

Clients note that Alec is a trusted advisor and key contributor in analyzing both legal and business issues.

Alec is admitted to practice in Minnesota, Colorado and New York. He began his practice at a large New York City law firm in the corporate department and later served as General Counsel of a family office/private equity group in Colorado. Additionally, Alec has been a notable member of the Twin Cities legal community for more than a decade.
